PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STAGE SET FOR FIM ASIA SUPERMOTO CHAMPIONSHIP RIDERS AT SUBANG SHOWDOWN

Teams and riders arrive for Round 3 at the Gery-Mang Circuit in West Java

Subang, West Java, Indonesia 25 October 2018 – The stage is set for the next installation of the FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship 2018 with the Gery-Mang Circuit in Subang City in West Java hosting the season's third round. Taking place from 26 to 28 October 2018, the weekend's action is expected to be a competitive one with the championship contenders all set to battle it out on the 1.118km long road racing Gery-Mang Circuit.

Designed specially for the FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship 2018, the layout of the circuit will see the riders tackle a unique circuit layout that combines motocross-style obstacles, off-road sectors in addition to the asphalt tarmac section.

"We are really excited to bring the third round of the FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship 2018 to a brand new venue in Indonesia, the Gery-Mang Circuit here in Subang City in West Java. The circuit is already home to many road-racing events and in true FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship fashion, the existing layout has been modified to include several motocross-style obstacles and dirt sections, which will make for some interesting racing this weekend! On the back of a well-established motorcycle-racing heritage, we are thrilled to bring all the action from the FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship 2018 to Indonesia's motorsport enthusiasts and fans. Working with our local entity, PT E-Plus Events Indonesia together with the support of the national sporting authority, Ikatan Motor Indonesia (IMI), we can expect a thrilling weekend of racing here in Subang City this weekend!" notes Andrew Ching, Chief Executive Officer of E-Plus Global Sdn Bhd, promoter and organiser of the FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship.

The challenge of the Indonesian round of the FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship 2018 will see the best talents from Asia and Europe descend on the Gery-Mang Circuit. This includes strong representation from the local contingent featuring seasoned-campaigner Pedro Wuner and Ivan Harry. Riding on his two top-ten finishes from the previous round in the Philippines, Pedro Wuner is looking to take full advantage on home ground advantage at the round, commenting, "I am really looking forward to the round at the Gery-Mang Circuit in West Java this weekend and competing in front of my home crowd here in Indonesia! After a great round in Manila following my top-ten finishes, I am moving towards my target and am looking forward to continue moving forward and give a good showing for my home race!"

After another near-perfect result with two race wins in Manila last month, Denmark's Simon Vilhelmsen will look to strengthen his hold on the race for the Best International Rider title at the Indonesian round. Also poised to provide a strong challenge to the Dane is the United Kingdom's Lewis Cornish who will be looking to build on his competitive and strong pace in the Philippines.

The action from the Indonesian round of the FIM Asia SuperMoto Championship 2018 will commence on Friday, 26 October with practice sessions, followed by Qualifying and SuperChrono sessions on Saturday, 27 October with the Moto 1 and Moto2 races taking place on Sunday, 28 October.
